

SUMMER READING BINGO

Hello, families! We at SMART Reading are all about getting kids engaged and excited about reading, and wanted to share this fun resource with you as a way to enjoy reading together this summer and help your child develop literacy skills.

Here are a few helpful tips for reading together:

1. Let the child decide whether to read or listen to the story
2. Act out parts of the story together -- it's okay to move around
3. Read favorite stories again and again

Read at bedtime 	Read to someone by phone or video 	Read for 20 minutes 	Make up a story 	Read a book with an animal on the cover
Read a recipe in a cookbook and make it 	Share your favorite part of the story 	Read a book that makes you laugh 	After reading a story, retell it to each other 	Read with a pet or a toy
Read a book backwards 	Draw a picture about the story 	FREE CHOICE	Read for 15 minutes 	Stop after the 1st page of a book and guess what will happen next
Read for 10 minutes 	Read a book about a real person 	Read while having a snack 	Make up a new ending to a favorite story 	Draw your favorite character
Memorize all the words in a favorite book 	Read outside 	Read in a silly voice 	Read something that's not a book 	Read a book with rhymes

Summer Reading Resources:

Find free books in your community at your local library (visit <https://publiclibraries.com/state/oregon/> to find one near you), or look for Little Free Libraries in your neighborhood.

Plan a reward for when your child gets a bingo (horizontal, vertical, diagonal): _____

Complete a blackout?:

Let us know by emailing SMART@SMARTReading.org and we'll send you a free children's book!

